Bishop David Oyedepo is understood and misunderstood by different people for different reasons. This book provides a better independent real-life account of the mystery behind the mastery of this global Christian gospel phenomenon and his pace-setting undeniable world-class superlative successes in the midst of deep multidimensional national poverty within his home country.

Today the true gospel is lost completely. The children of God worldwide are being robbed of their money and of the truth and the knowledge of their priestly position in Christ in this era of grace (free gift) that we operate in by televangelists and prosperity preachers, who have sealed their hearts permanently from the love of God and the truth. God is in the business today of exposing this great evil and bringing back his people on the right track. He is setting aside the highly educated doctors and professors of junk for the lowly and weak to this purpose. In the great outcry, you will find Gods response to key questions such as sowing of seeds, tithes, prosperity, salvation, and lot more in this era.

This essential introduction to contemporary constructive theology charts the most important disciplinary trends of the moment. The contributors explore the porous boundaries between Christianity and other religions, reflect on contextual, liberation and constructive theologies from Africa and from Black British perspectives, explore the connection between embodiment, epistemology and hermeneutics, and take a constructive approach to the dangerous memories and theologies of colonial histories in Belgium and Native Americans in the United States. It seems extraordinary that Dr Richard Dawkins, who Dr Stephen Hawking implied was an imbecile, was apologising for Albert Einstein. I believe Dawkins was afflicted by delusional self-aggrandisement, which is a form of psychosis and part of the clinical manifestations of latent, progressive dementia. He was not fit to speak for a true genius like Einstein. Infallibility is brainless nonsense, as it exists only in the supernatural realm. Only an infallible being will describe another being as fallible. If Albert Einstein were a stately horse, Dr Richard Dawkins is an insect. Albert Einstein regards Sir Isaac Newton as near deity. Sir Isaac Newton was a devout, unorthodox Christian, and perhaps, the supreme science genius.

Wasting a dream is like wasting a life, and a life without a dream is a hopeless one. We don't dream to attract attention or recognition; to be applauded by families and well-wishers. We do dream because our lives are dependent on it. 'Real dreamers' never quit, even when it seems like giving up. They are aware of the fact that the dreams they possess are tried and tested. They comprehend that without the hurdles, these dreams fail to survive the test of time. No man prays for his dreams to be opposed; but the fact still remains: It's inevitable. 'Literal dreamers' only imagine and assume. They paint the magnified pictures of their lives but never strive to make them happen. 'Real dreamers' never deal with assumptions; they believe and act. One thing is to dream, and another, to act on it to make it a reality. It's biblically written that faith without work is dead. A dream without an effort hits the rock. So therefore, keep your aspirations alive with the right nutrients. As long as you can breath, your 'dreams' can breathe also. «Living Beyond Your Dream World» is a book which will energize your body, soul and spirit to be part of the 'Dream Census'; thus, making the dream alive. DIG DEEPER! DREAM BIGGER!! IT'S YOUR TIME TO SHINE!!!

This book formulates the Pentecostal principle -- the capacity of social existence to begin something new -- and applies it specifically to the field of ethical methodology. Nimi Wariboko engages contemporary philosophers, from Hannah Arendt to Giorgio Agamben and others working in the Tillichian tradition, as he develops an understanding of how Pentecostal thought sheds new light on the nature, task, and project of social ethics. With an eye for both the intrinsic playfulness of Pentecostal practice and the realities of global pluralism, Wariboko contributes a distinctively Pentecostal voice to ongoing conversations in political theology, social ethics, public theology, and philosophy.--From publisher's description.

Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today. Frequently, these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally, such as with the Anti-Homosexuality Bill in Uganda. In the international media, these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply-rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions. But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them. Complementing the companion volume, Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa, this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub-Saharan Africa. The contributors present case studies from various African countries, from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda, focusing on Pentecostal, Catholic and mainline Protestant churches. They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination, but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity, social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa.

"I think your work is a necessary and valuable exposure of this religious phenomenon and the appallingly cynical exploitation of the religious and cultural beliefs of the poor and the vulnerable. I would like to see it published." Suzanne Wilton Huddersfield, UK

"The book is particularly apt at this period of Christianity in Nigeria because it addresses the 'money syndrome' that has crept into Christianity in Nigeria and the faking of the call of God.... The book addresses the yearning of many Christians who are worried by this menace but may not know how to discuss it." Reverend Kenneth Nwaubani Abia, Nigeria "I am particularly impressed by the depth of research that has gone into this book. It will generate intellectual discourse, challenge our spiritual guardians and mentors and it may well put some of them on the defensive." Hon. Kazeem Adio Osun, Nigeria

"This book provides an interesting insight into the plight of religion in Nigeria and into the facet of the human condition that allows for the exploitation of the faithful and vulnerable individuals." Will Colbridge Penistone, UK

"Very few publications, if any, capture through the religious prism the mechanical nature of developing Nigerian society in the way that this publication does. ..." Casmir Okoli London, UK

"The book will, I believe, open the door for many who are still in the dark regarding the subject matter." Rev Fr Nicholas Nwagwu New York, USA

The highest form of love is the love of God the Father for man and man in turn loving God. It is a covenant love of a Father for the humans He created, and the humans returning this love to God. Love is all about seeing God the Father in people, and desiring them for the purpose of God. There is need to explain what true love means in the present generation and more importantly, it needs to be taught. What our youths see around them today may be far from the true meaning of love. We learn the facts of life, we learn to swim, we learn to drive, so teach me love. Teach Me Love is intended to share and spread the gospel of love. There is an urgent need to remind ourselves of the need to share the self-sacrificing love. We need to take practical steps towards love, practical steps towards making a difference in each other's life. Let's teach each other Love. Mercy Gogo Iwo Brown Mannasseh has a burning desire to enlighten our youths and impact on their lives. She's on a mission to touch lives positively and help them live their best life. She has for long struggled with the question of what to do with her gifts of inspiration and motivation. Then PlayHouse was conceived. PlayHouse is a non-governmental organization whose main objective revolves around the youths. Every youth is given by Nature innate or in-born potentials that are seemingly dormant or buried in them. These potentials most often require to be activated by the right environment. It is, therefore, expedient that the right and suitable environment is given to bring out the best abilities from these youths. If a youth in the growing up years is not appropriately taught, instructed or directed, even the best potentials in that youth may be killed and never actualized. Working from the premise that every youth is significant, and every youth is unique, she organized a pool of Para Soccer teams in Rivers State. Under her leadership, the team has won many national competitions. The Rivers State Ministry of Sports and Youth Development formally inaugurated Para Soccer Association Rivers State Chapter which is affiliated to the Para Soccer Federation of Nigeria, in recognition of her unrelenting efforts at promoting not only the sportsmanship in these youth but also being passionately committed to their well-being. This has afforded her the privilege of a seat on the Nigeria's National Sports Commission Board as member representing the South-South Region. No one being loved is poor. Love is never decreased when it's being shared. One act of love can ignite many more acts of love. She has been made more powerful, imaginative and stronger by acts of love, as love is wealth in its own right. Doing acts of love is the safest and surest investment that returns infinite recompense of reward. It is the best asset much more precious than any material wealth. She has been loved deeply which has given her strength. She has loved deeply and this has given her courage to share the message of Teach Me Love.

No book could be more direct on the benefits of problems than this. It is straight forward on the main reason people suffer; the lack of right perspective.

In 2005, I resigned as a full-time pastor of a church and relocated to Lagos, Nigeria, with one mission in mind: To observe and study the life of Bishop David Oyedepo, resident Bishop of Faith Tabernacle, Ogun State, Nigeria, the Largest Single Church in the world, according to Guinness Book of Records What I share with you in this book is a summary of what I have learned from the life and ministry of Bishop Dr. David O. Oyedepo in this last 10 years. It's been a long journey, but suffice it say that I have enjoyed every bit of it. Like all men of great influence, Bishop Oyedepo, has been analysed in the public domain and given different names by different people. However, I believe that no man actually rises to the top by making mistakes. People only rise to the top by doing the right things over a long period of time. In this book, I share with you the success habits and secrets of one of the greatest leaders of Charismatic revival on earth today...Bishop David Olaniyan Oyedepo May we all fulfill the purpose for which we are born.

Not only can you improve your life and become a better you, you can certainly live joyfully, live a stress free life, a debt free life, enjoy a long lasting career, a healthy relationship, peaceful marital life, live a successful and fulfilled life every day of your life. The author Taiwo Ayodele suggests, it is important that you discover the purpose why you are here on earth for - Vision. Vision is what God created you for here on earth, what you are born to do. God has decided your vision before you were born but it is your responsibility to "discover" it. Jer. 1:5 (AMP) - Before I formed you in the womb I knew [and] approved of you [as My chosen instrument], and before you were born I separated and set you apart, consecrating you; [and] I appointed you as a prophet to the nations. This scripture confirms that God decides our vision as a manufacturer will decide and determine the function of its products, ie the electric light bulb did not discover itself, it was discovered by Thomas Edison; Henry Ford discovered automobiles. Likewise, we ought to discover God's given assignment for our lives here on earth. The mobile phone manufacturers decided that the phones should be used for communication either via text messaging or voice communication or email. The phone is not meant to be used for ironing (that is not its function) or cooking (that is not its function). Obviously not. God is our manufacturer, we are the products. The products cannot determine its functionality without the manufacturer speculating what the product should do and how it should be used and for how long. There is a time span also to which a product must exist or last for. Discovering and knowing all these will help you to plan, organize your life here on earth and live it to the fullest as God desires - John 10:10b, Jer. 29:11. Taiwo Ayodele reveals profound principles that when adhered to will help you discover your vision, potentials, and the fulfilled life that God offers you and how to fully live it. This will help you become all that God wants you to be. In a nutshell, Taiwo explains Biblical principles on how to live above the stigma of questionable events and negative memories of the past and all these will enlighten and motivate you to seek the best life that is on offer for you. Within the book, Taiwo Ayodele elaborates on topics such as forgiveness, discovering God's master plan for your life, knowing His way of doing things, the benefit of knowing God and

His ways, understanding His direction - How to execute His Master plan, His requirements and finally practical examples of how to fulfill the heavenly vision here on earth. How to improve your life? Vision and Direction that Works will help you become all that God wants you to be in life, reach your God-given potentials, fulfill your dream and vision and enjoy the best life that God designed for you. You will be overwhelmed by how much blessings, dominions, authorities, grace and much more that God has made available to you. These Biblical principles will enable you to utilize them to the fullest. If you grasp and obey these great principles, you will make your heavenly Father happy and you will be happy for the rest of your life.

As many have had their hope deferred, and their hearts sickened as a result, The Spirit of Acceleration offers a rekindling of that hope. The Spirit of Acceleration does, in seconds or minutes, what would normally take months or years to accomplish. Wherever the Spirit of Acceleration dawns, God quickens things up. These last days are not a time for despair, but a time for delight, demonstration, and deliverance. According to apostle Peter, it will be a time of "refreshing (and)...restitution of all things" (Acts 3:19""21). This book espouses fundamental principles that guarantee speed and strength for the last-day church before Jesus returns. In this book, God teaches believers to work with wisdom so they can be backed up by kingdom wealth and accomplish God's end-time agenda. The last-day Spirit of Acceleration is God's last push to close the age and herald the return of the Lord Jesus Christ. Only a church militant and on the move, however, can eject the enemy and get victory in life. It takes speed to shine in life and going to manifest his glory! God has saved the best for the last. A glory that is unprecedented is about to shine forth from the church, and it will herald his coming and be characterized by unusual speed and uncommon glory. That is why in Romans 9:28""30, the Bible says "He will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth...(so that)...the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith."

This book, Eyes of Sacrifice (The Massacre of Africa), draws a sharp contrast between the various and enormous subsoil riches of Africa and the acute poverty of its populations. It exposes the outside powers and their African stooges—the wizards from within—who are responsible for this state of things. This work will insist on a change of the mentalities and approach by a new generation of Africa's elites—politicians, ethnic population leaders, opinion leaders—which will take Africa “into the valley of light.”

‘I am Jesus (not the Christ)...so are you the saved’ is a very complex message to attempt to convey to any audience (particularly by a student of the Holy Scriptures) but Chimezie Okonkwo is an author endowed by God with such exceptional talents and gifts on inspirational/motivational titles and is devoted to taking on the complexities in the Christian doctrine and detailing/exposing them to the locked mind, thereby engaging his readers with the realities of his messages strongly embedded in the word of God and some personal testimonies. In this book he identifies with clear understanding the divine nature of the different meanings attached to the name of Jesus and beautifully narrates them both from a natural (physical as man) and equally from a supernatural (Spiritual as God) perspective. From the natural (physical) realm Okonkwo narrates Jesus as the ‘man of God’ who walks the earth bearing witness of the glorious gospel and from the supernatural (Spiritual) realm through discernment Okonkwo identifies Jesus as the ‘God of man’ who will come (again) to judge the living and the dead. Jesus Christ being both man and God fulfils this character thereby satisfying both personalities observed in this masterpiece. Okonkwo exploits his ideas from God in depth through this endeavour and does it exceptionally well indeed.

Character Failure is the basic foundational problem of man since the beginning of the world even to this day. Our approach to life, our attitude towards one another, our mind set, and the absence of the fear of God has been the legal ground, Satan has been using to get hold of us to waste our precious soul in Hell. Human cultures, traditions, and science, are now being substituted in place of God's word, and now, all we are getting out of this, despite the great development, are pains, troubles, and affliction. Direction is a Book of my total life experience inspired by the Holy Spirit to liberate the world through the Word. It covers every areas of life to give us a clear understanding and approach towards living that would enable us to enjoy life at its fullest and also be in peace with God. Its practical, direct, and confirmative.

How are we to please God and learn how to do what He tells us is right? The author sets out for us what God's approval means and how we can earn it. Quoting extensively from the Bible, she explains the importance of faith, obedience and giving if we are to please God and do His will. This book is a wake-up call to Christians who are not yet on the right path.

The book of Ruth is a story of love, kindness, loyalty, reliability, integrity, trust, and faith in God and care for the well-being of others. The main characters in the book, Naomi, Ruth, and Boaz, demonstrated these sublime qualities. Though the book deals with ordinary people and ordinary matters of life, it deals with them in such a way as to show that God is active in the affairs of men. He works His purpose out in the lives of individuals, families, and communities and blesses them that trust Him. There are nine chapters in the book. Chapter 1 is the introduction while chapters 2 to 6 are verse-by-verse analysis of the biblical text of the book of Ruth. Chapter 7 discusses lessons that can be learnt from the book while chapter 8 focuses on mother-and-daughter-in-law relationship. Chapter 9 is on the theme "God can use anyone." The book is an invaluable guide for in-law's relationship and an ideal wedding present. There is something in the book for everybody. This book is sent out in the prayerful wish that it will have a positive influence in the lives of all who read it. We are now more concerned with efficiency than destiny, speed than direction, following crowd than original purpose, non-essentials disconnect us from the essentials of life, ephemeral instead of eternal, and creations in place of the creator. God is calling individuals, families, cooperations, organisations, governments, and nations to stop for realignment back to His original standard. Prisca has shared in her books the need for us to stop and recalibrate our inner compass, especially during challenging times. As Christians, the darkness, trials, trauma, crisis, and challenges that are meant for evil can be used for our upgrade. We could lose direction if we don't stop and realign. Jesus is always calling the Church to realign to its purpose; to shine the light into the world. Many think that if they stop and reset, the world will stop spinning. No, it won't! The coronavirus and racism and pandemic have slowed down the world. Recalibrating is inevitable when navigating a time like this. Prisca spiced every chapter of this book with her testimonies of how she was recalibrating during tough moments.

This book is like a manual to help you overcome the trials of life. It is good for singles preparing for marriage, for married couples, and for the ministry. By reading my story, you will get acquainted with wisdom and power to overcome the hurdles of life.

Focusing on the intricate presence of a Japanese new religion (Sekai Kyûseikyô) in the densely populated and primarily Christian environment of Kinshasa (DR Congo), this ethnographic study offers a practitioner-orientated perspective to create a localized picture of religious globalization. Guided by an aesthetic approach to religion, the study moves beyond a focus limited to text and offers insights into the role of religious objects, spiritual technologies and aesthetic repertoires in the production and politics of difference. The boundaries between non-Christian religious minorities and the largely Christian public sphere involve fears and suspicion of "magic" and "occult sciences".

Pentecostal and Charismatic Christianity is a global phenomenon that comprises a quarter of the world's two billion Christians and is growing rapidly. This volume reveals that the primary appeal of pentecostalism worldwide is as a religion of healing. Contrary to popular stereotypes of flamboyant, fraudulent, anti-medical "faith healing" televangelists who preach a materialistic, "health and wealth" gospel, handle serpents, or sensationally "exorcize" demons, this book offers a more nuanced portrait. The collected essays illumine local variations, hybridities, and tensions in practices on six continents, and depict the extent of human suffering and powerlessness experienced by people everywhere and the attractiveness to many of a global religious movement that promises material relief by invoking spiritual resources. This is the first book of its kind. Achieving the twin goals of thick description and comparative analysis of global practices is best achieved by bringing area experts into conversation. This volume's distinguished, international team of contributors includes sociologists, anthropologists, historians, political scientists, theologians, and religious studies scholars from North America, Europe, and Africa. Read together, these essays set the agenda for a new program of scholarly inquiry into some of the largest forces of change at work in the world today-globalization, pentecostalism, and healing-each of which is extremely powerful in itself and which together are reshaping our world in vastly significant ways.
