"Het is volle maan maar de zware bewolking en lichte regen belemmeren het zicht. De vuurtoren zwaait met vaste regelmaat haar licht over het trieste schouwspel. Het licht van mijn hoofdlamp gaat verloren in het donker. Langzaam begint het tot me door te dringen dat een stuk van mijn leven wordt afgesloten". In "SoloMan" herbeleeft Jack van Ommen zijn ongelooflijk avontuur dat begon aan de Amerikaanse westkust en negen jaar later tot een voorlopig einde kwam in een wilde storm in de Middellandse Zee. Hij begon zijn droom in een negen meter zeilboot met $150 op zijn bankrekening. Na 51 landen en 48.000 zeemijlen in het kielzog, komt er een abrupt einde aan zijn ontdekkingsreis. Hij verliest zijn boot en al zijn bezittingen. Dit is het verhaal van een levensveranderende ervaring op zee en hoe hij tegenslagen te boven komt met doorzetten, hoop en houvast in zijn geloof in God en mensheid. Jack van Ommen, Amsterdam 1937. English causative constructions with "cause," "get," "have" and "make" are often mistakenly presented as (quasi-)synonymous and more or less interchangeable. This book demonstrates the value of corpus linguistics in identifying the syntactic, semantic, lexical and stylistic features that are distinctive for each of these constructions. It also underlines the usefulness of providing corpus studies with a solid theoretical foundation by showing how corpus linguistics can be fruitfully combined with cognitive linguistics, which is used both as a starting point for the analysis (top-down approach) and as a framework within which to interpret the corpus results (bottom-up approach). From a methodological point of view, the study illustrates the complementarity of corpus and elicitation data, and offers tools and methods that could be used to investigate other syntactic structures. Finally, the book also has a pedagogical dimension in that it examines how the research findings can be applied to foreign language teaching.
