The only textbook that has been written for the Oxford AQA International GCSE English Literature specification (9275), for first teaching in September 2016. Written by expert authors who have contributed to the new specification, the clear international approach develops students' reading, writing and critical thinking skills. Packed with examples of Prose, Poetry, Set and Unseen texts and exercises in the first half build strong foundations, developing the key skills required to critically analyse, evaluate and respond to different types of literature. The second half ensures students are fully prepared for their exams with full support and guidance on each part of the assessment, giving students the opportunity to apply the skills they have learnt to specific Set and Unseen texts. This textbook helps students to develop the key skills needed for their exams and provides an excellent grounding for further study at A Level.

The Guide has been written primarily for students of GCSE English Literature as specified by EDEXCEL in the post-2015 syllabus (1ET0). It addresses the requirement to study one cluster of poems taken from the EDEXCEL/Pearson Poetry Anthology and the requirement to analyse and compare two Unseen poems. These requirements are assessed in Component 2 (19th century Novel and Poetry since 1789), Section B: Poetry, and Section C: Unseen Poetry, of the examination. The poems are explored individually, with links and connections between them drawn as appropriate. The format of each exploration is similar:

- An explanation of key features of the poem that require contextual knowledge or illustration and the relationship between the text and its context.
- A summary of the key themes of the poems, with a note on possible thematic links to other poems in the cluster
- A summary of the metric form, rhyme scheme or other structural features, related to the theme
- A "walk-through" (or explication) of the poem, ensuring that what is happening in the poem is understood, how the rhythm and rhyme contribute to meaning, an explanation of the meaning of words which may be unfamiliar, an exploration of language and imagery and a comment on main themes.

Brieven van de Engelse dichter (1795-1821) aan zijn geliefde.

Through a skills-based and Assessment Objective-focused approach, this Student Book develops the skills on which students will be assessed in the exam papers. The book provides a thorough preparation for students of all abilities on the poetry requirements of the exam, with skills-development support for the other areas of the specification.
