Below is a preview of the earlier sections of the summary: Prologue: Angels at Arby's Todd explains that on July fourth, 2003, he and his family were en-route to see his wife's brother and his wife and their two-month old baby. The Burpo family was traveling from Imperial, Nebraska, a small farming town, to Sioux Falls, South Dakota. It is the first time his family has gone on a trip since the previous March, when they went to Greeley, Colorado, which ended up being a nightmare because one of the children almost died. Todd and his wife, Sonja, decide it's best to leave at 8 p.m., so Colton, their nearly four year old son, will sleep most of the way. Ninety minutes into the trip, they stop for gas and food in North Platte, and Todd notices that they are near the Great Plains Regional Medical Center where they'd spent fifteen horrific days the previous March praying for Colton's life. He jokingly asks Colton if he wants to go back to the hospital, to which the child replies that they should send his sister, Cassie, instead. He also says that he remembers the hospital because that's where the angels sang to him. Intrigued by his comment, Todd asks what they sang to him. "Jesus Loves Me" and "The Battle of Jericho" are the songs Colton remembers with great clarity. Todd and Sonja exchange glances while Todd wonders if his son is remembering a dream. He asks his son what the angels looked like, and Colton says that one looked like his Grandpa, Dennis. He adds that the angels sang to him because Jesus asked them to, because he was scared. Colton says that he sat on Jesus' lap and also that he looked down and saw the doctors working on his body and his mom and dad in separate rooms both praying. Todd and Sonja look at each other in shock, wondering how their son could know exactly where they were and what they were each doing while he was in surgery. Though he is a pastor, Todd has to wonder if what his son is telling him could possibly be true. Chapter One: The Crawl-A-See-Um It's March, 2003, and Todd has a board meeting in Greeley, Colorado. Since the previous August, his family has been dealing with months of injury and illnesses including a shattered leg, two surgeries and cancer. The string of bad luck and ill health has taken a toll on their bank account, even though they have an overhead garage door business and a small pastor's salary to rely on. By February things were starting to get better, so he and Sonja decided to turn his business trip into a family trip to help the family rejuvenate. Sonja had found a Butterfly Pavilion/Invertebrate Zoo located in Denver which she thought the kids would love, and they do...

In When I See Him, a mother recalls her journey with her firstborn son, from his anticipated conception to her eventful pregnancy that leads to his premature birth. She recounts his days at the neonatal intensive care unit and shares an intimate story of finding God in those around her for hope. After waiting over a year to start a family, God finally blesses Sharon with a child. While there are moments of joy and excitement in her pregnancy, there are also frightful episodes that end with trips to the emergency room. Following some complications, her son is born thirteen weeks early. Sharon and her husband suddenly find themselves with new responsibilities of parenting a preemie in a hospital environment. As they face the realities of being in the neonatal intensive care unit, they are taught to rely on God's grace and to trust in His sovereignty, even when God gives them exactly what they need. When I See Him is a candid, hope-filled, and intensely personal account of the peaks and valleys Sharon and her husband experienced with their baby boy and a testimony of how God used their son's life in ways that were higher than their own. De jongen die in de hemel was is het bijzondere verhaal van de vierjarige Colton, die op stel en sprong moest worden geopereerd aan een acute blindedarmontsteking. De artsen onderkenden te laat dat de situatie levensbedreigend was, en tijdens de operatie krijgt Colton een hartstilstand. Wonder boven wonder herstelt Colton en niet lang daarna begint hij te vertellen over de operatie: dat hij de artsen met hem bezig zag en dat hij zijn vader in een aparte kamer op zijn knieën zag bidden. De familie weet niet zo goed wat ze ermee aan moet, maar al snel hopen de bewijzen zich op. Colton vertelt dat hij zijn zusje, wier leven na drie maanden eindigde in een miskraam en over wie nooit werd gesproken, zijn overgrootvader en zelfs Jezus heeft gezien. Over al deze mensen weet hij details die hij nooit had kunnen weten en de familie realiseert zich gaandeweg dat ze Colton wel moeten geloven...

This beautifully written half-memoir, half-essay, explores the realities of Papa God's love for you, your identity as His beloved child and heirs, and the transformation of your vision of yourself, others, and world events that this revelation of your place in the divine family brings. Poignant personal reflections are woven artfully with metaphors, personal stories, and an eclectic smattering of quotes and movie references. You, too, are invited to reflect and discover your own divine encounter. You will learn how to see through Heaven's eyes—through the Father's eyes—and that look of love will transform everything, including: God. Yourself. Other people. Your family. Your enemies. The end times. Seeing Through Heaven's Eyes is powerfully presented and will bless and free you to experience a deeper relationship with Father God.

Are you struggling with your faith or trying to help others but cannot get around the problem of "If there is a God, why is he hidden?" Killing Atheism bypasses traditional apologetics and powerfully shows that God is not hidden. It describes irrefutable secular evidence showing that the story of Christ must be true. This is not an academic endeavor, but a spiritual and evidentiary journey written for the layman, with only a few digressions into the world of traditional apologetics. We have been given free will to ignore, reject, or accept Jesus. If your inclination is to ignore or reject, you must deal with the points made in this book.

WARNING: This is not the actual book Heaven is for Real by Todd Burpo & Lynn Vincent. Do not buy this Summary, Review & Analysis if you are looking for a full copy of this great book. Todd Burpo is a Christian pastor who details the stories his son told in the months following his surgery. This summary of Heaven is for Real breaks down each chapter into easy-to-digest nuggets of information. After surgery, Colton tells detailed stories of Heaven. He talks of people he couldn't possibly know, such as his miscarried sister. He claims to have not only met Jesus, along with his colorful horse, but he also claims that he met angels, Mary, and even his great-grandfather as a young man. This summary brings all this and more together, while also offering short biographies of the authors involved. Critics counter with the fact that there is no medical data to back any of this up, but true believers don't care: Heaven is for Real. Heaven is for Real is a #1 New York Times bestseller by Lynn Jackson and Todd Burpo. This thought-provoking Christian book hit shelves in 2010, and to date, it has sold well over a million e-book copies alone. As detailed in this expert summary, the book tells the tale of Colton Burpo, Todd's 3-year-old (at the time) son who nearly died after a bout with appendicitis. Is Heaven real? According to Colton it is, as he wakes from surgery and tells his dad a detailed story of his time there. A movie based on the book starring Greg Kinnear is set to hit theaters in April 2014.

This book is a collaboration between a biblical scholar (Mary Ann Beavis) and a practical theologian (HyeRan Kim-Cragg) who are concerned with the way that the Bible is portrayed and interpreted in popular culture, including but not limited to the movies. This concern points to a need for a conversation, examining what the Bible actually says, in order to uncover transformations and distortions of the biblical stories in the wider culture—including Christian culture. Our conversation is counter-cultural, not in an oppositional way, but taking an alternative posture that aims to provide different insights by drawing from and closely looking at the Bible. The chapters take a Christian canonical approach, articulating "what the Bible says" (and doesn't say) with regard to culturally pervasive themes such as sin and salvation, Christ and Antichrist, heaven and hell, in contrast to popular understandings as disseminated in (primarily) film, advertising, television, etc. We hope that together we will open up fertile academic, ecclesial, and secular space for disclosing loaded cultural and ideological views towards offering positive and intriguing insights embedded in the Bible.

Heaven visitations are all the rage today. A retelling of the sights, sounds, and smells of a supposed trip to Heaven can land an author at the top of the bestseller list and produce enough speaking engagements, morning television appearances, news segments, and interviews on Christian TV and radio to keep him at the top of the bestseller list for quite some time. In this book, author and pastor Jim Osman of Kootenai Community Church examines the claims of Heaven Tourists: Don Piper (90 Minutes in Heaven), Colton and Todd Burpo (Heaven Is for Real) and Eben Alexander (Proof of Heaven). Pastor Osman offers a critical theological critique of their writings and media appearances, comparing their claims to Scripture and to each other. He also examines their stories for internal consistency. He shows that these "eye-witness" testimonies of Heaven are not only self contradictory, but more importantly, they contradict Scripture. Pastor Osman calls upon faithful Christians everywhere to reject these cleverly devised fables and affirm their commitment to the sufficiency of Scripture as God's infallible and final revelation. This book will equip you to expose the errors of the Heaven Tourism industry and to defend the truth of Scripture. By providing critical theological reviews of these three bestsellers, this book helps expose the errors made by ALL those who claim to have visited Heaven. Chapter headings are as follows: Introduction Chapter 1 - A Critical Theological Review of Don Piper's Book 90 Minutes in Heaven Chapter 2 - A Critical Theological Review of Todd Burpo's Book Heaven Is for Real Chapter 3 - A Critical Theological Review of Eben Alexander's Book Proof of Heaven Chapter 4 - Conclusion: The Problems with Heaven Tourism Chapter 5 - Do You Know the True Gospel? In the popular vein of Heaven Is for Real and now available in paperback, Memories of Heaven, written by #1 New York Times best-selling author Dr. Wayne W. Dyer and friend and collaborator Dee Garnes, collects astonishing real-life stories of children who vividly remember heaven . . . from the time before they were born! Dr. Wayne W. Dyer and co-author Dee Garnes had often talked about how the ones who know the most about God are those who have just recently been wrapped in the arms of the Divine, our infants and toddlers. In fact, Dee had an interaction with her own young son that convinced her of this. Curious about this phenomenon, Wayne and Dee decided to issue an invitation to parents all over the world to share their experiences. The overwhelming response they received prompted them to put together this book, which includes the most interesting and illuminating of these stories in which very young children speak about their remembrances before they were born. It seems that infants and toddlers often arrive here with memories of their lifetimes in the spirit world and frequently provide evidence of this to their immediate families. They tell of dialogues with God, give evidence that they themselves had a hand in picking their own parents, speak about long-deceased family members they knew while in the dimension of Spirit, verify past-life recollections, and speak eloquently and accurately of a kind of Divine love that exists beyond this physical realm--and even of times when telepathic communication took place, as well as the ability to decide just when they would come here to Earth. This fascinating book encourages parents and grandparents to take a much more active role in communicating with their new arrivals . . . and to realize that there is far more to this earthly experience than what we perceive with our five senses.

God is for Real, a new book from author of the best-seller Heaven is for Real, addresses soul-searching questions about God, like What is God like? Why are things the way they are in spite of who God is? If Todd's first book, Heaven Is for Real, was about the then and there of heaven, God is for Real is about the here and now on earth: Why are there are so many hypocritical church people? Why do Christians make such a big deal about the cross? Why doesn't God seem to answer our biggest prayers? People are tired of pat answers offered up in churchy language explaining away their questions; we want the down-and-dirty truth. What bothers us about life and faith is real and gritty. We need a plain-spoken voice to offer God's answers to difficult struggles and painful doubts. Todd charges into these subjects with a fireman's courage, a small-town friend's vulnerability, and a local pastor's compassion. He helps articulate the questions people have, then gives them relevant biblical wisdom for taking their next steps in faith. God is ready to meet you! Are you ready to meet Him?

In this volume the brilliant Fr. Spitzer probes in detail the major question that if an intelligent Creator God – manifest in logical proofs, scientific evidence, and near death experiences - who is the source of our desire for the sacred, and the transcendental desires for truth, love, goodness, and beauty, would want to reveal himself to us personally and ultimately. He then shows this is reasonable not only in light of our interior experience of a transcendent Reality, but also that a completely intelligent Reality is completely positive--implying its possession of a completely positive virtue – namely "love", defined as agape. This leads to the question whether God might be unconditionally loving, and if he is, whether he would want to make a personal appearance to us in a perfect act of empathy – face to face. After examining the rational evidence for this, he reviews all world religions to see if there is one that reveals such a God – an unconditionally loving God who would want to be with us in perfect empathy. This leads us to the extraordinary claim of Jesus Christ who taught that God is "Abba", the unconditionally loving Father. Jesus' claims go further, saying that He is also unconditional love, and that his mission is to give us that love through an act of complete self-sacrifice. He also claims to be the exclusive Son of the Father, sent by God to save the world, and the one who possesses divine power and authority. The rest of the book does an in-depth examination of the evidence for Jesus' unconditional love of sinners, his teachings, his miracles, and his rising from the dead. As well as the evidence for Jesus' gift of the Holy Spirit that enabled his disciples to perform miracles in his name, and evidence for the presence of the Holy Spirit today. If this strong evidence convinces us to believe that Jesus is our ultimate meaning and destiny, and desire His saving presence in our lives, that evidence should galvanize the Holy Spirit within us to show that Jesus is Lord and Savior, "the way, the truth, and the life." And our faith in him will transform everything we think about our nature, dignity, and destiny— and how we live, endure suffering, contend with evil, and treat our neighbor.

A comical romance about a woman wanting to find her arranged marriage partner! The self-proclaimed happy single Jiwoo is eager to work at her grandfather's company. But her grandfather is adamant about marrying her off to his chosen candidate at his company. Not being able to find out who he is, she disguises herself as a man and dives into the orientation events he is attending. Believing that the candidate might be Minwoo, a boy from her childhood, creates even more confusion about his real identity, for... There are two men with the name Minwoo! "Hiding Their Discretions Behind the Cross" chronicles moments of my experiences, paying special attention to processes normally involved in seeking to find, keep, or reconcile the loss of a bond with another person. The book was arranged around my perceptions of particular individuals. They have "three things in common; they all tried to rob me of my dignity, my integrity and my self-esteem." Using a generally straightforward approach, the author integrates personal observation and scriptural interpretation in an effort to create a thorough yet accessible resource. This book is designed to mark phases of my own journey as well as to enlighten and provoke thought for the reader who may be following a similar path.

De hellebewoners maken per bus een uitstapje naar de hemel, maar niemand van hen wil er blijven. Hemel en hel passen niet bij elkaar, net zomin als goed en kwaad. Tussen beide bestaat een absolute scheiding. Lewis schrijft: 'Ik verzoek mijn lezers te bedenken dat dit verhaal een allegorie is. Het bevat natuurlijk een moraal, maar de in dit boek vertelde gebeurtenissen na de dood zijn slechts vrucht van de verbeelding: ze bedoelen niet een speculatie te zijn over wat ons werkelijk wacht.'
