"Moses said to the Lord, See, thou sayest to me, Bring up this people; but thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, I know you by name, and you have also found favour in my sight. Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thy sight, show me now thy ways, that I may know thee and find favour in thy sight. Consider too that this nation is thy people. And he said, My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest. And he said to him, If thy presence will not go with me, do not carry us up from here. For how shall it be known that I have found favour in thy sight, I and thy people? Is it not in thy going with us, so that we are distinct, I and thy people, from all other people that are upon the face of the earth? And the Lord said to Moses, This very thing that you have spoken I will do; for you have found favour in my sight, and I know you by name. Moses said, I pray thee, show me thy glory. And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim before you my name, The Lord and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy" (Exodus 33:12-19). Moses knew God. The Apostle Paul testified, "I myself was convinced that I ought to do many things in opposing the name of Jesus of Nazareth. And I did so in Jerusalem; I not only shut up many of the saints in prison, by authority from the chief priests, but when they were put to death I cast my vote against them. And I punished them often in all the synagogues and tried to make them blaspheme; and in raging fury against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities. Thus I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. At midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven brighter than the sun, shining round me and those who journeyed with me. And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It hurts you to kick against the goads. And I said, 'Who are you, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom you are persecuting, But rise and stand upon your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you to serve and bear witness to the things which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to you, delivering you from the people and from the Gentiles - to whom I send you to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me" (Acts 26:9-18). Paul started thus with a personal knowledge of the Lord. After many fresh encounters with the Lord, he said, "That I may know him and the power of his resurrection and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, that if possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead" (Philippians 3:10-11). Paul knew the Lord and yearned more and more to know Him. His service for the Lord sprang out of his settled and growing knowledge of the Lord. There are many believers today who worship "the unknown God". There are many who have never sought Him until He was revealed to them. There are many who do not know Him. There are many for whom sin is a wonderful attraction because they have never beheld the all-glorious face of the eternal Father nor heard His sweet voice. Their faith is more or less a theory. God seems absent or at best, withdrawn. Do you know God? When did you personally encounter Him? When was your last encounter with Him? The greatest need of the hour is for saints who know God. This book is about knowing God. We consider that the greatest need of the hour is for believers to know their God and render to Him service that is an outflow of this knowledge and intimacy with Him. It is a book for you!

In today's Western culture, very little meaning is placed on names. In fact, names are often viewed merely as tags or labels by which to differentiate one person or object from another. Yet Moses records God as having raised up His people, Israel, for the express purpose that His "name may be declared in all the earth" (Exodus 9:16). To comprehend the significance of this and so many other similar scriptures, one must begin with a proper understanding of the ancient Hebraic view of names. But Knowing God by Name is more than an explanation of ancient perspectives. It is an invitation into an entirely new yet timeless world of thinking and experience—a revelation that, for many, serves as the beginning of a deep and unfolding relationship with Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

People rushing past. A familiar face. A flash of recognition. Shifting glances and awkward conversation. What's the distraction? Panicky attempts to recall the person's name! It's an embarrassing thing to stand face to face with someone you have met more than once and have to end the conversation with, "Uh ... what was your name again?" Too often the church does just that - with God. We catch a glimpse of Him in our busy schedule, barely recognize Him moving in the world around us, and when our paths cross at the end of the day, we make awkward conversation in prayer, unsure of His heart and intentions, embarrassed to admit we don't know Him as intimately as we should. While this book will not provide you with an exhaustive list of the names of God, it will lay the foundation for your study of Him. It will share some of the Biblical reasons for getting to know God by name, the benefits of investing in a relationship with Him. It will encourage you to dig deeper in your faith, because the last thing any of us want is to stand before the throne on judgment day, sheepishly asking, "What was your name again?"

Madeline Miller heeft op bewonderingswaardige wijze de klassieker Ilias opnieuw vormgegeven in een eigentijdse, spannende roman waarvoor ze de Orange Prize 2012 heeft gekregen. Patroclus is een jonge prins, verbannen naar het koninkrijk van Phthia om daar op te groeien met godenzoon Achilles. Achilles is sterk, mooi, een gouden kind: alles wat Patroclus niet is. Maar ondanks hun verschillen raken de jongens innig bevriend, en hun band wordt sterker naarmate ze ouder worden. Dit tot verdriet en woede van Achilles' moeder Thetis, een wrede zeegodin die een hekel heeft aan stervelingen. Als duidelijk wordt dat Helena van Sparta is ontvoerd en alle Griekse mannen verplicht zijn om haar eer te wreken en Troje te belegeren, sluit Achilles zich aan bij het leger, verblind door de belofte van roem. Patroclus, verscheurd door liefde voor en angst om zijn vriend, gaat met hem mee. Zij weten niet dat het lot hen tot het uiterste zal testen en hun zal vragen om een verschrikkelijk offer.
