Five children, one girl and four boys, are born to Annie and Isaac. Little by little the Freedland children glean from their parents' peculiarities that they are different from their neighbors. Pa takes live chickens to the city for ritual slaughtering. Alone, among their multi-ethnic neighbors, the entire family speaks Yiddish. The spinster schoolteacher, Miss Quello, admonishes Ma and Pa for denying their children their heritage.

Why do I present this book when the Bible, the Bible dictionaries, concordances, and many books are available. Well, those were my thoughts exactly-being a seasoned Christian. However, when I shared my idea of a book of this kind, with young Christians and New Christians, the interest and enthusiasm levels were overwhelming. Therefore, this book is for the young and the New Christian, for the Seasoned Christians and the unbelievers. The purpose is to erase any fear of Bible study; to generate enthusiasm for the word "of God"; to nurture and "jumpstart" young and New Christians; to introduce many of the authors of the Bible; to cause the young in Christ to become enlightened by the "word" of God. The discussion topics should entertain the Seasoned Christian: and to light the path of the New Believer. Reach deep into their lives and meet them where they are. They are meant to touch lives, help to restore lives, and offer some direction. To the non-believers, my prayer is that they will read this book, discuss its contents, and draw near to God as a result. My prayer is that they will come to love Jesus Christ and appreciate the work that he did on the cross for all to be delivered from the bondage of sin. To the seasoned believers, my prayer is that you will read, enjoy, and use this book. But most of all, I pray that in the name of Jesus, you will introduce it to others. May God Bless You, Lillian Colson Graham

It is a mistake to suppose that any room, however small and unpleasantly situated, is "good enough" for a kitchen. This is the room where housekeepers pass a great portion of their time, and it should be one of the brightest and most convenient rooms in the house; for upon the results of no other department depend so greatly the health and comfort of the family as upon those involved in this 'household workshop'. This book was written to address some sensitive questions, and to provide the answers that are earnestly needed in these days. Questions such as, Should a church assist you if you ever need financial help? Do you want to know what the money that is being collected by your church, or any other church should actually be used for (according to the Bible), opposing to what many churches are using it to do? Should you be putting your money in a church if that church is not helping those who are less fortunate and in need (poor)? Should those who worked for a Church (including all pastors and ministers) and received wage for their labor pay

This inspirational memoir will provide hope to many of us who feel at times discouraged, stuck in what we think is a helpless situation, bullied on the playgrounds of life, or shunned for being different. Joe Giovanelli was born blind at a time when blind children were often warehoused in special schools and then shunted off to work in sheltered workshops. But not for Joe! His school-teacher mom pushed for a good education and his dad encouraged Joe's mechanical aptitudes. Joe became a trailblazer in education of the blind, graduating cum laude from Syracuse University. With an upbeat love for his work, he became a leader in the field of audio and recording. He was awakened in mid-life by how God had and continues to guide him throughout his life. Perseverance, enriched by his personal faith, enabled him to meet

And this delightfully told memoir gives us a new understanding of what it's like to live day by day blind in a sighted world. And Joe says, "I never felt I needed sight." "The memoir of Joe Giovanelli is a beautifully crafted story and one of the best told memoirs I have seen in my over 40 years in publishing. It pulls you the reader in just as if you were sitting chatting with Joe - getting to know well the evolving personality and inspiring life story of this remarkable man." -Stephen Pfleiderer, retired publishing executive
