

Richard Scarrys Busiest People Ever

Follow the adventures of Charlie, an urban three-year-old on the fast track, and his slow-track mommy. In this hilarious volume, Charlie gets a haircut like Sting's, runs up a tab at a baseball game, and prefers the garlic press to any of his expensive "educational" toys. Charlie is a kid learning to be a consumer. His mommy reveals important secrets, like which stroller is "in," which is the "right" playgroup, and how to throw a fabulous fourth birthday party. Moms and dads alike will find these anecdotes of parenting at the end of the century to be truly priceless.

The 25 lessons in this 5part instructional guide are designed to build on the world in which young children live.

Informatief boek over de invloed van de jaargetijden op het leven van de dieren die op en om de boerderij voorkomen. Fans of firefighters and fire truck will love this rollicking story from the great Richard Scarry! Sparky, Smokey, Snuzzle, and Squirty are the valiant firepigs who keep Busytown safe. But their busy days are much more than just putting out fires. They come when Hilda drops her keys in the drain, and they help Mr. Frumble with his pickle car. It's also important that they keep the firehouse neat and clean. But, of course, putting out fires may be their most important job. Once again, Richard Scarry's trademark humor and silly picture details will enchant readers who, again and again, will want to hear the adventures of these perhaps overambitious firefighters.

With clinical case examples throughout, it provides ideas for practice and interventions for use in institutional and community settings.
